

UFO Lore Terms

ALFs: An acronym used for “alien life forms” before the popular American 1980s sitcom.

Chubacobra: A blood sucking hairy alien looking creature with glowing eyes reported in Puerto Rico.

Ducle, New Mexico: An alleged underground base where there are aliens.

Extraterrestrial Biological Entities (EBEs): An MJ-12 term for aliens.

J-Rod: The name of an alleged Area 51 alien.

Men In Black (MIBs):

Another staple of UFO folklore is the MIB's - men in black. These shadowy figures are variously said to be agents of the U.S. or Soviet governments or perhaps even visitors from outer space. They are reported to have turned up after certain UFO sightings to intimidate witnesses and destroy or steal evidence. Made into a fictional movie, popularized by Hollywood.

MJ-12: An alleged group of high-ups inside the US government part of the ET cover-up.

Programmed Life Forms (PLFs):

Look alike creatures that have the appearance of an extraterrestrial but are man made used in military related abductions. (Barry King, Steven Greer source)

SOM 1-01 Manual: A crash recovery operations manual by the MJ-12 detailing aliens and craft.

Foreign Intelligence and UFOs

Britain's Government Communication Headquarter (GCHQ):

Aliases hand-in-glove with its American counterpart, the National Security Agency.

Institute 22:

The Soviet Union's vast, top-secret UFO research program set up in 1977, between the mid-1950s and mid 1960s about 15,000 sightings were reported by pilots, of which most could be explained.

Project Condign (a randomly generated code word):

MoD's investigation of UFOs during the 1990s. The final report published in 2000 was titled “Unidentified Aerial Phenomena in the UK Air Defense Region.”